I was wondering how LEGO Builders come up with the different names for their creations? For example, BIONICLE™, Bohrok and LEGO TECHNIC™ and things like that. Eric Maynard, 12, New York

Wow, good question, Eric! Sometimes coming up with the right name for something is the hardest part of creating it. You might build a really awesome LEGO creature with wings and a tail and big claws and teeth... but then what do you call him? Binky? Sweetums? Draconis Rex? It's tough! Plus when you come up with a name, you have to make sure that no one else is already using that name (which is why you will never see a Toa named Amazing Redini!)

How come LEGO mini-figures don't have fingers?
Chad Douglas, 10, Louisiana

LEGO mini-figures have the special "hands" they do to make it easier for them to hold tools. But not having fingers does cause some problems – they can't play the piano real well, or give each other the "thumbs up," or count on their fingers and toes. But none of them have complained yet!

I've noticed that Ogel's name is LEGO spelled backwards. Did you mean to do that, or was it an accident?
Jason Rouso, 10, Pennsylvania

Thanks for your question, and for the cool drawing on your envelope! I asked Evil Ogel why he chose that name, and he said, "My name is LEGO spelled backwards because I'm the opposite of LEGO toys! LEGO toys are fun... I try to ruin everyone's fun! Building with LEGO toys is a great thing to do with your friends... I don't have any friends! LEGO toys are colorful and cool and everyone wants them... I hang out with skeleton drones, never get invited to parties, and always smell like fish! Bah!"

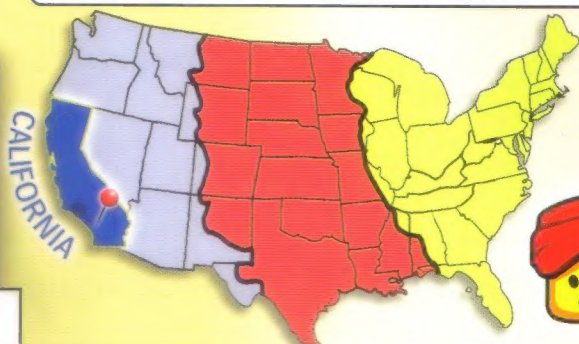

Hope that answers your question, Jason, because I don't really want to visit with Ogel anymore... he gives me a haddock.

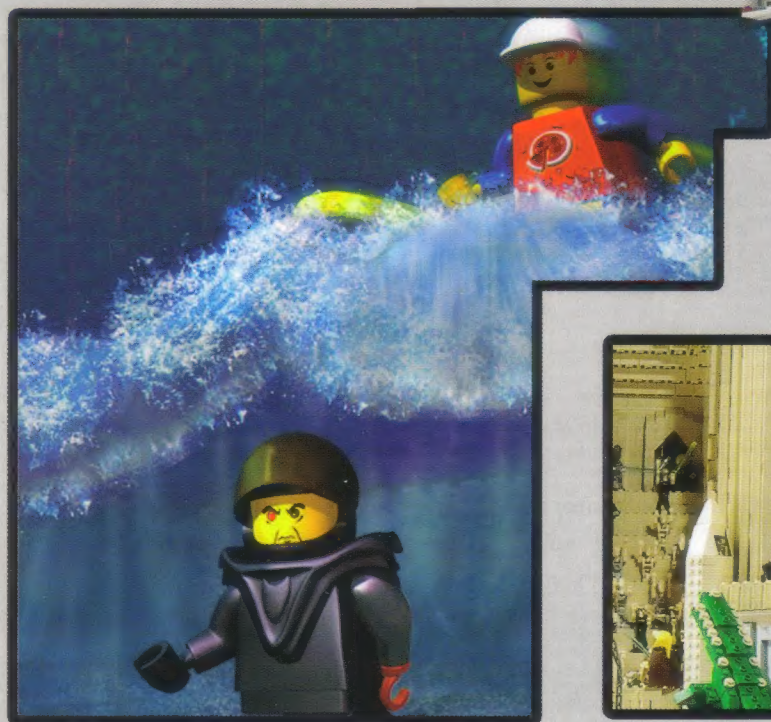

Where in California is LEGOLAND® California, and does it have water rides? Is it open all year?
Sammy Cordero, 12, Texas

LEGOLAND® California is located in Carlsbad, CA, and if you like water rides, you'll love the Aquazone Wave Racers! For more information on the park's open dates, hours, and attractions, check out www.LEGOLAND.com today!

pocket models

Tree trimmers. Stocking stuffers. A seasonal scene to display on your mantle. There's no end to the Holiday models you can create with your LEGO® collection. So grab a handful of bricks and start getting into the Holiday spirit.

'Tis the Holiday Season and through LEGO Town
Seems the Holiday spirit's nowhere to be found

So let's gather up bricks from each cranny and nook
And create a more festively seasonal look;

First we'll build some fir trees, and a loblolly pine,
And a sleigh for Bobtail, the one-horse open kind

We'll build a snowman with a huge carrot nose
And some holiday gifts decked with ribbons and bows

And a ski lift that climbs up-up-up for a mile
Look out! Here comes St. Nick and he's carving, freestyle!

When the sun starts to sink and the weather turns chilly
We'll build us a LEGO brick lodge, willy nilly

With a stocking-draped hearth and an evergreen wreath
And a crickety crackle fire underneath

Then we'll lift our hot cocoa and let out a cheer
For the veriest merriest time of the year!

Oh, that's just how we'll build it, 'cause, when each year ends,
All our Happiest Holidays are those built with friends.

Season's Greetings and Very Merry Building, Your LEGO Town Friends

SUPER SOGGY FOOTBALL!

SUFFERING SAUSAGES!
THE FOOTBALL TEAMS
HAVE DISAPPEARED!

OH NO!

THE CHAMPION RED AND BLUE FOOTBALL TEAMS WERE SCHEDULED TO PLAY A SPECIAL MATCH ON LEGO ISLAND TODAY. BUT NOW THERE'S TERRIBLE NEWS!

THE INFOMANIAC TAKES OFF TO LOOK FOR THE MISSING PLAYERS.

THE TEAMS ARE GONE, I DON'T KNOW WHY, BUT I WILL GLADLY SEARCH THE SKY!

I SEE SHARKS, SALMON,
AND SEALS, BUT NO FOOTBALL
TEAMS. BUMMER!

WHILE SNAP LOCKITT KEEPS AN EYE ON THE OCEAN.

WHERE ARE WE?
HOW DID WE GET HERE?

AND WHY DOES EVERY-THING SMELL LIKE FISH?

BUT THE FOOTBALL TEAMS ARE THE ONE PLACE NO ONE WOULD EVER THINK TO LOOK: UNDER THE SEA!

EVIL OGEL!

I'M THE ANSWER TO BOTH THOSE QUESTIONS! I HAD YOU BROUGHT HERE SO YOU COULD PLAY SOCCER FOR ME!

I BUILT AN UNBREAKABLE GLASS DOME TO KEEP THE WATER OUT - AND TO KEEP YOU FROM LEAVING UNTIL THE GAME'S OVER!

WHY DON'T YOU JUST PLAY YOUR OWN GAME?

EVER TRIED TO DO A HEADER WITH A DIVING HELMET ON? OUCH!

THE FIRST UNDERSEA GAME OF SOCCER EVER PLAYED BEGINS! DODGING DEFENDERS IS EASY...

... DODGING PUDDLES ISN'T!

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN IN THIS GAME!

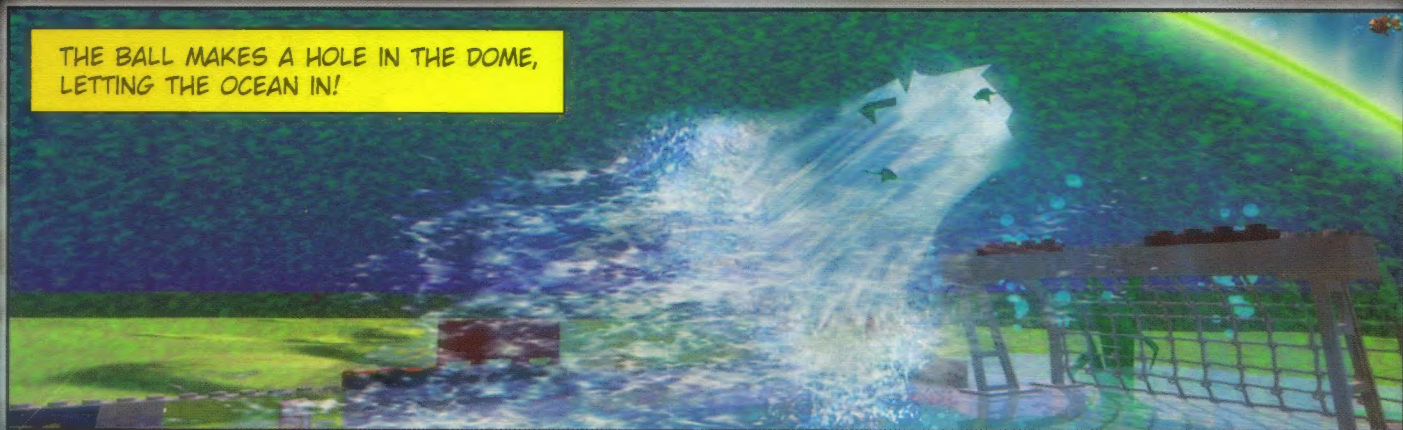

AND THE SOCCER PLAYERS QUICKLY DISCOVER —

TWO POINTS!

WHERE THE HECK DID THAT COME FROM??

OH, NO, HE'S NOT!

GOT YOU!

YEAH, I KNOW, HE DOES THAT TO ME ALL THE TIME.

BAH! CURSES!

WOW, THIS STORY IS REALLY EXCITING!

IT SURE IS!

I HAVE A FISH IN MY SHOE...

LATER, THE SOCCER TEAMS TAKE THE FIELD ON LEGO ISLAND!

SURE IS GREAT TO HAVE THINGS BACK TO NORMAL!

YEAH, SOCCER'S MORE FUN WHEN THE BALL'S NOT SOGGY.

I'LL SAY! BUT I SURE HOPE OGEL AND THE BRICKSTER NEVER TEAM UP...

WILL OGEL AND THE BRICKSTER PLAY TRICKS TOGETHER SOMEDAY? ONLY TIME WILL TELL!

THE END!

LEGO® Model Builders Bring Star Wars® to Life

David Gold

Erik Varszegi

When LEGO Master Model Builders meet the Star Wars™ universe, the results are out of this world! Two top designers, David Gold and Erik Varszegi, accepted the challenge of recreating the climax of Star Wars™ Episode II: Attack of the Clones™ using LEGO pieces. You can see the exciting results in the photos on the next three pages! This diorama features three Republic Gunships™, an army of Clone Troopers™, plenty of Jedi™, and many of the exciting droids and creatures from the movie!

We sat down with David and Erik to ask them about what went into building this Star Wars™ scene, and what it's like to be a LEGO Master Model Builder.

Q. How long did it take to build all these Star Wars™ models and put this scene together?

How many bricks were used?

ERIK: It took two Master Model Builders about 120 hours to design and assemble. And we stopped counting at about the 2157th brick!

Q. How did this project get started?

ERIK: About a year ago we met with a Lucas Licensing representative who gave us a brief run-down of the plot for Star Wars™ Episode II. So I knew the kinds of things to include in a diorama if we were to make one. There are so many things going on in the last act of the movie it was really difficult to choose exactly what would go in. I could have easily made it 10 times as large and still not gotten everything in there!

Q. Are there other Star Wars™ scenes you would like to build?

DAVID: I would really like to recreate some scenes from the Expanded universe books.

ERIK: I've always thought it would be great to make a diorama of the Death Star. No, not the whole thing — there aren't enough LEGO bricks in this galaxy for that!

Q. How did you get to be a LEGO Master Model Builder?

ERIK: I've always had an interest in art, especially sculpture. LEGO bricks are another medium to use to express my creativity.

DAVID: I have a background in architecture and have always had a great ability to imagine things in 3D. When I was a kid, I was always creating cool models out of LEGO pieces. Now as an adult I create things on a much larger scale.

Q. What's the best thing about being a LEGO Master Model Builder?

DAVID: I've been told that I have the best job in the whole wide world because I get to play for a living.

ERIK: The absolute best thing is that it never gets boring here. I'm creating something different nearly every single day!

Q. If you could be any character in the Star Wars™ universe, who would it be?

ERIK: That's a tough one, there are so many great characters to choose from. I did dress up as Han Solo™ one Halloween.

DAVID: I would be Boba Fett™. He has the coolest toys!
